PipeHorse Releases New Floyd Url Shortener

San Francisco, CA - August 31st 2018 - The newest San Francisco start-up, Pipehorse, Inc is set to announce the release of our newest web application Floyd. Curated for any web users that are interested in taking a long url like "https://www.holbertonschool.com/" and return a functional short url like "https://goo.gl/ReLWpj".

Floyd is a web application curated by team pipehorse that anyone can access via web browser at pipehorse.holberton.us.

Team Pipehorse will be having a team division conference that will be held at Holberton School of Software Engineering on August 31st, 2018. Please feel free to join us at 5pm, where we will discuss commonly asked questions and concepts we plan to touch in the future.

Pipehorse, Inc is an international company founded in 2018. For any affiliate programs, questions, feel free to contact us at shortenmyurl.socialmedia@gmail.com.

Words from our CEO, Omar Contreras, "We have a responsive design that could be used on any device, the format is simple and elegant. It's free, and no signup fees."
